

Hello, I'm Mariel!

I'm a Filipino creative based in Manila, Philippines.

My colorful illustrative work is reflective of the wonder & humor that I go about with in the world. I'm passionate about design for social good - grounded on empathy, inclusivity, & sustainability.

First and foremost,

I'm an Illustrator.

I am the sum of my influences — comics, the internet, and Sunday-morning cartoons. Luckily, people have trusted me to do some cool stuff for them!

Select Clients:

Scout Magazine, Preview Magazine, Young Star Philippines, ABS-CBN Publishing, Oishi Snacks, Potato Corner, Lush Philippines, UNICEF Philippines, IDEO Japan, etc.

Work Includes:

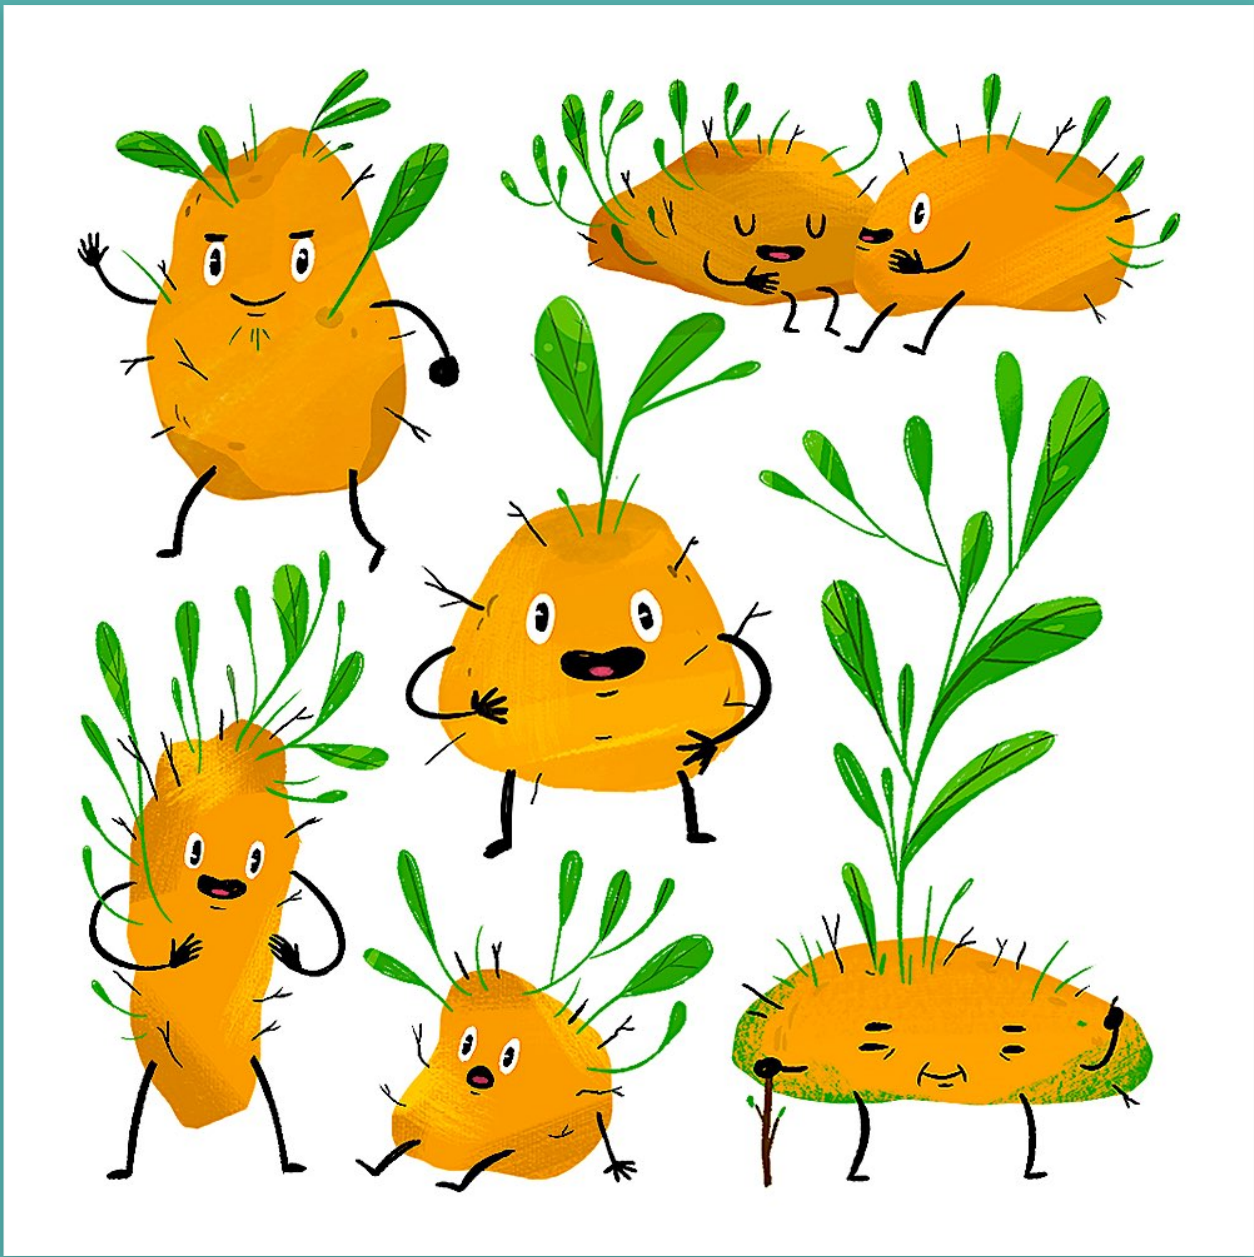

Editorial Illustration, Comics, Storyboarding, Infographics, Process Visualization, .gif-making, Wearable Design, Book Illustration, Murals, and basically anything that involves scribbling!

For samples, skim through the next slides →

+ Wearable Design + Textile Illustration

A bandana demonstrating a step-by-step process on how to self-check for breast cancer.

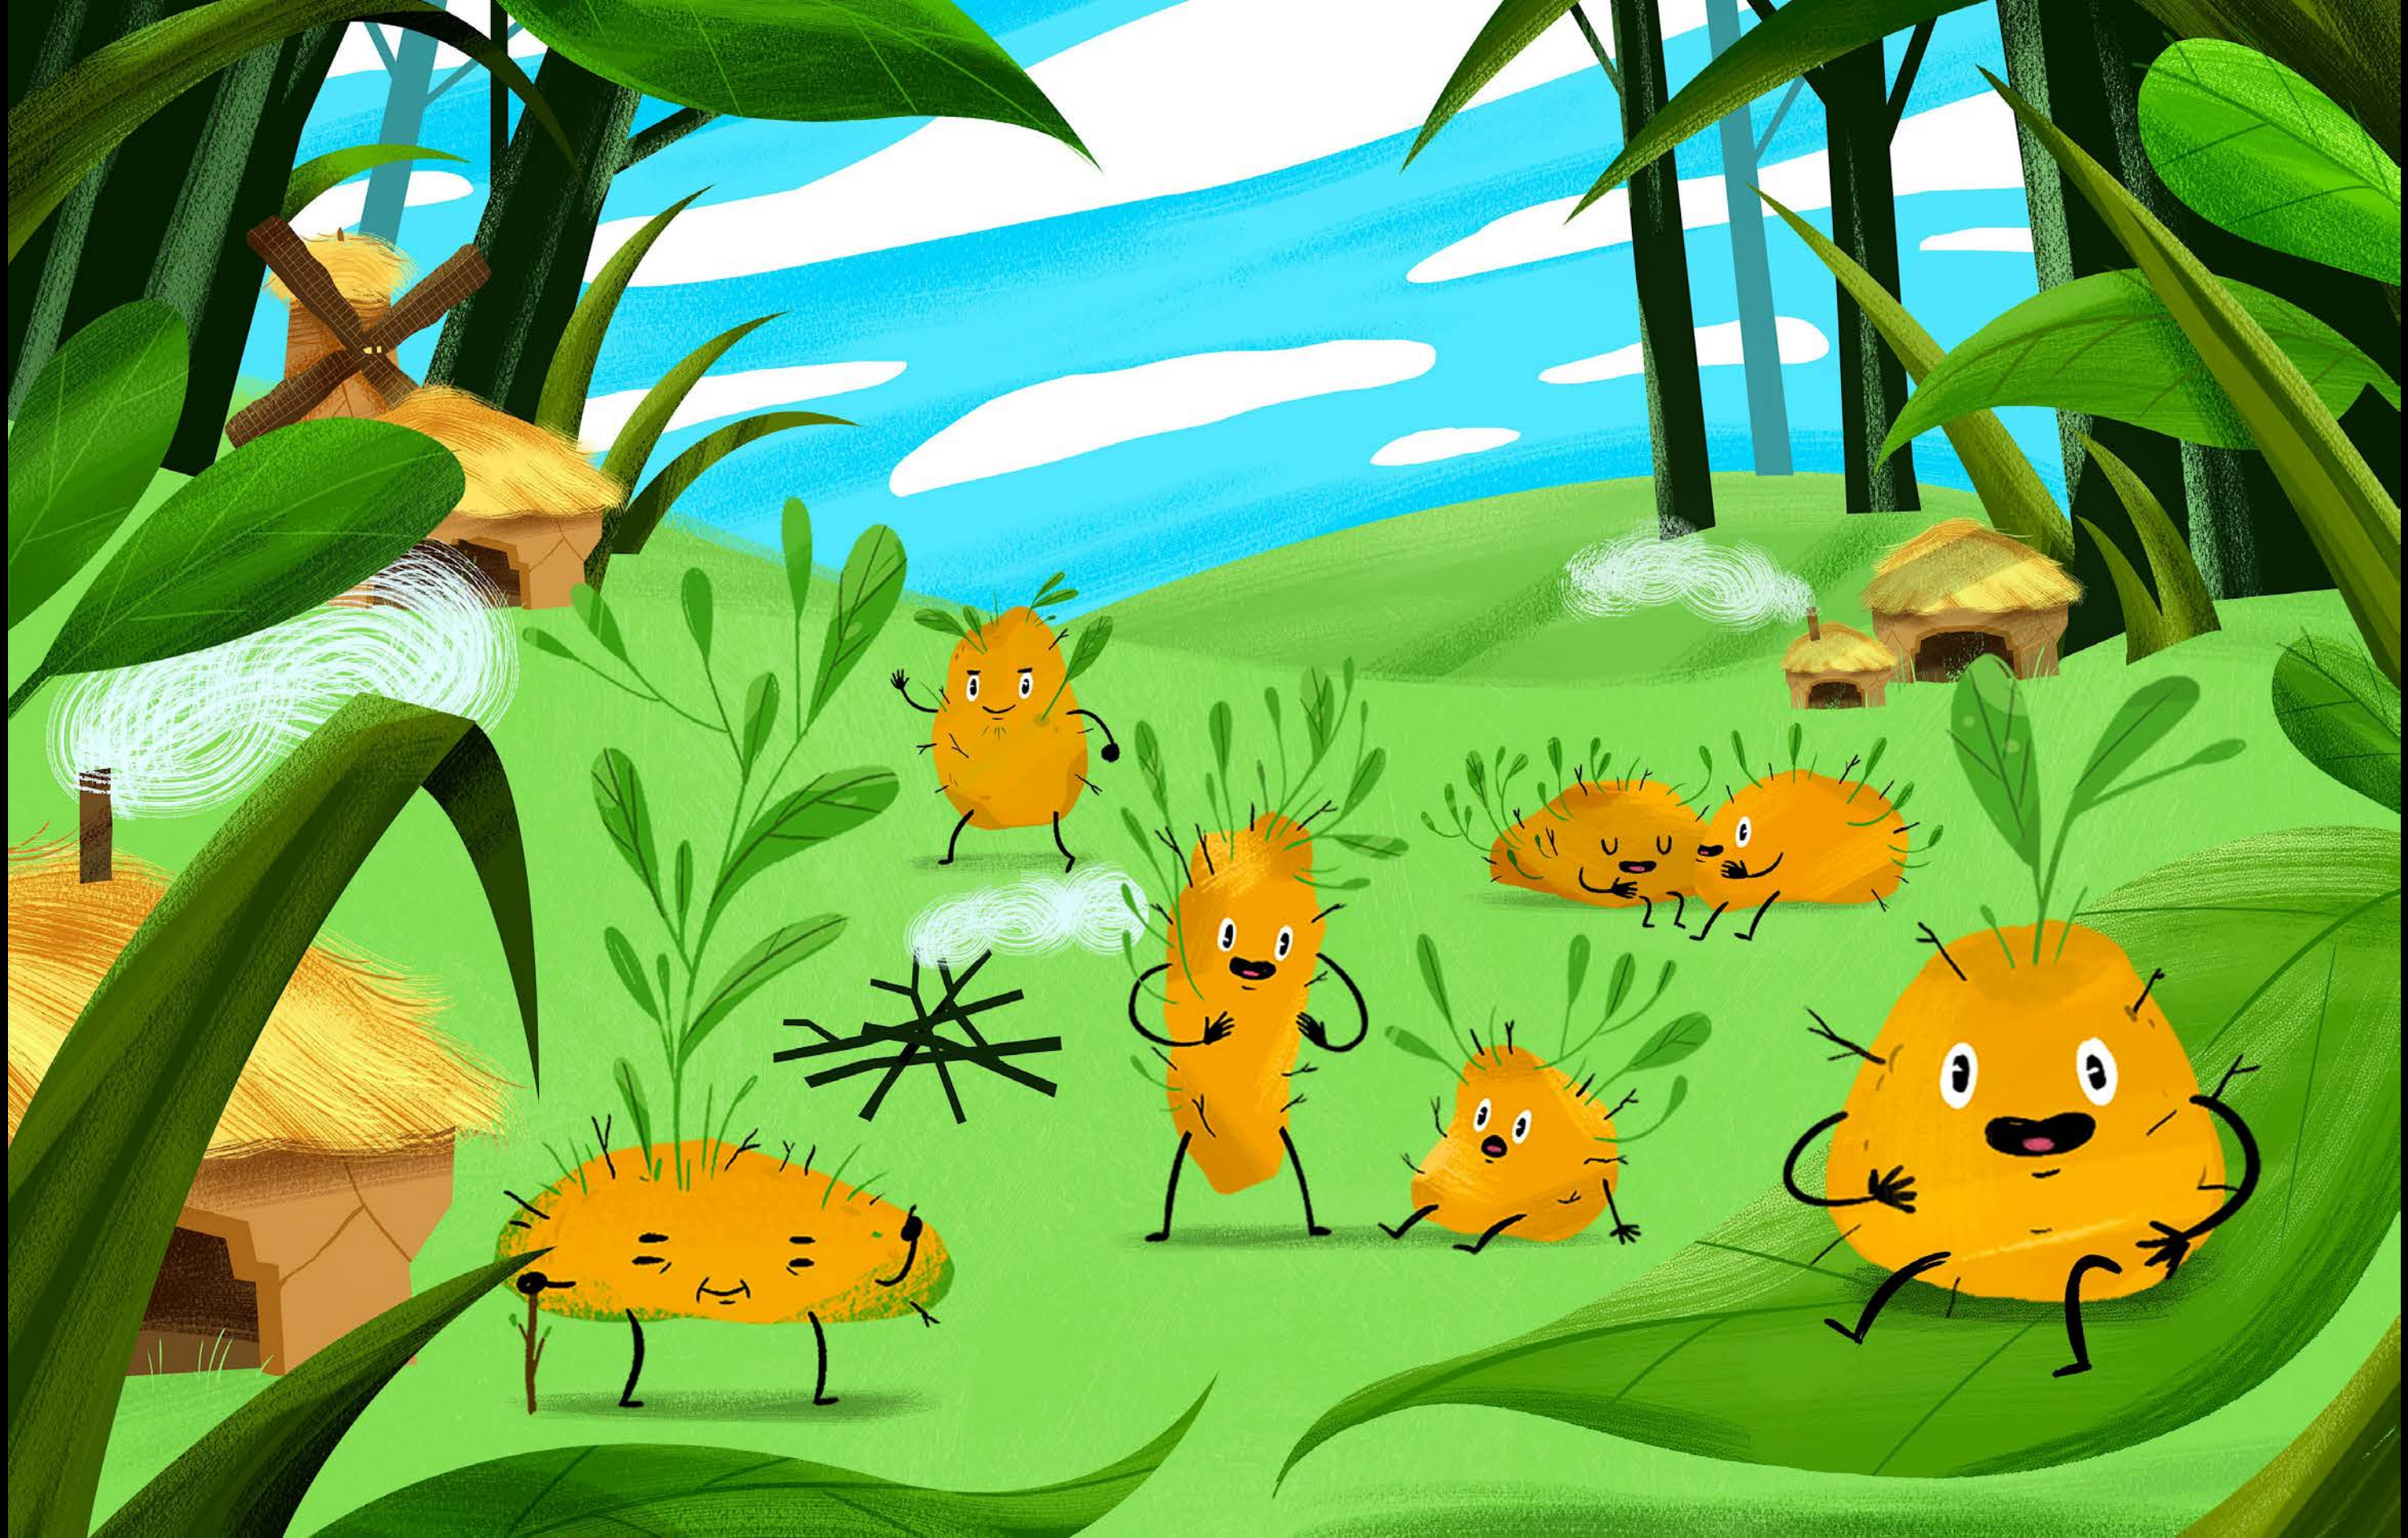

+ Character Design + Storybook Illustration

Personal illustrations based from the children's short story "Bully Big Pig" by Katti Sta. Ana.

+ Children's Illustration

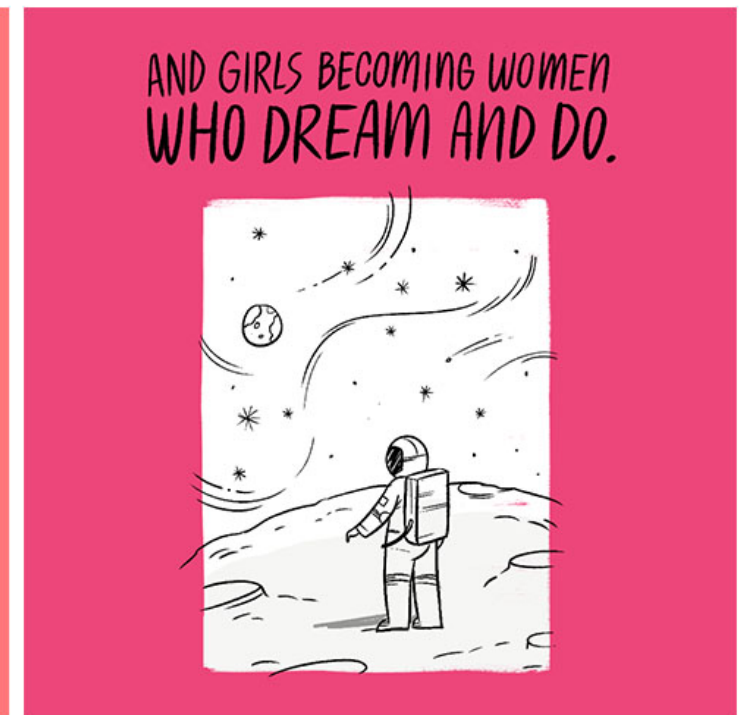

A personal commission for a jungle-themed baby shower.

+ Comics

'Today Comics': a personal comics project that encourages being present by focusing on today.

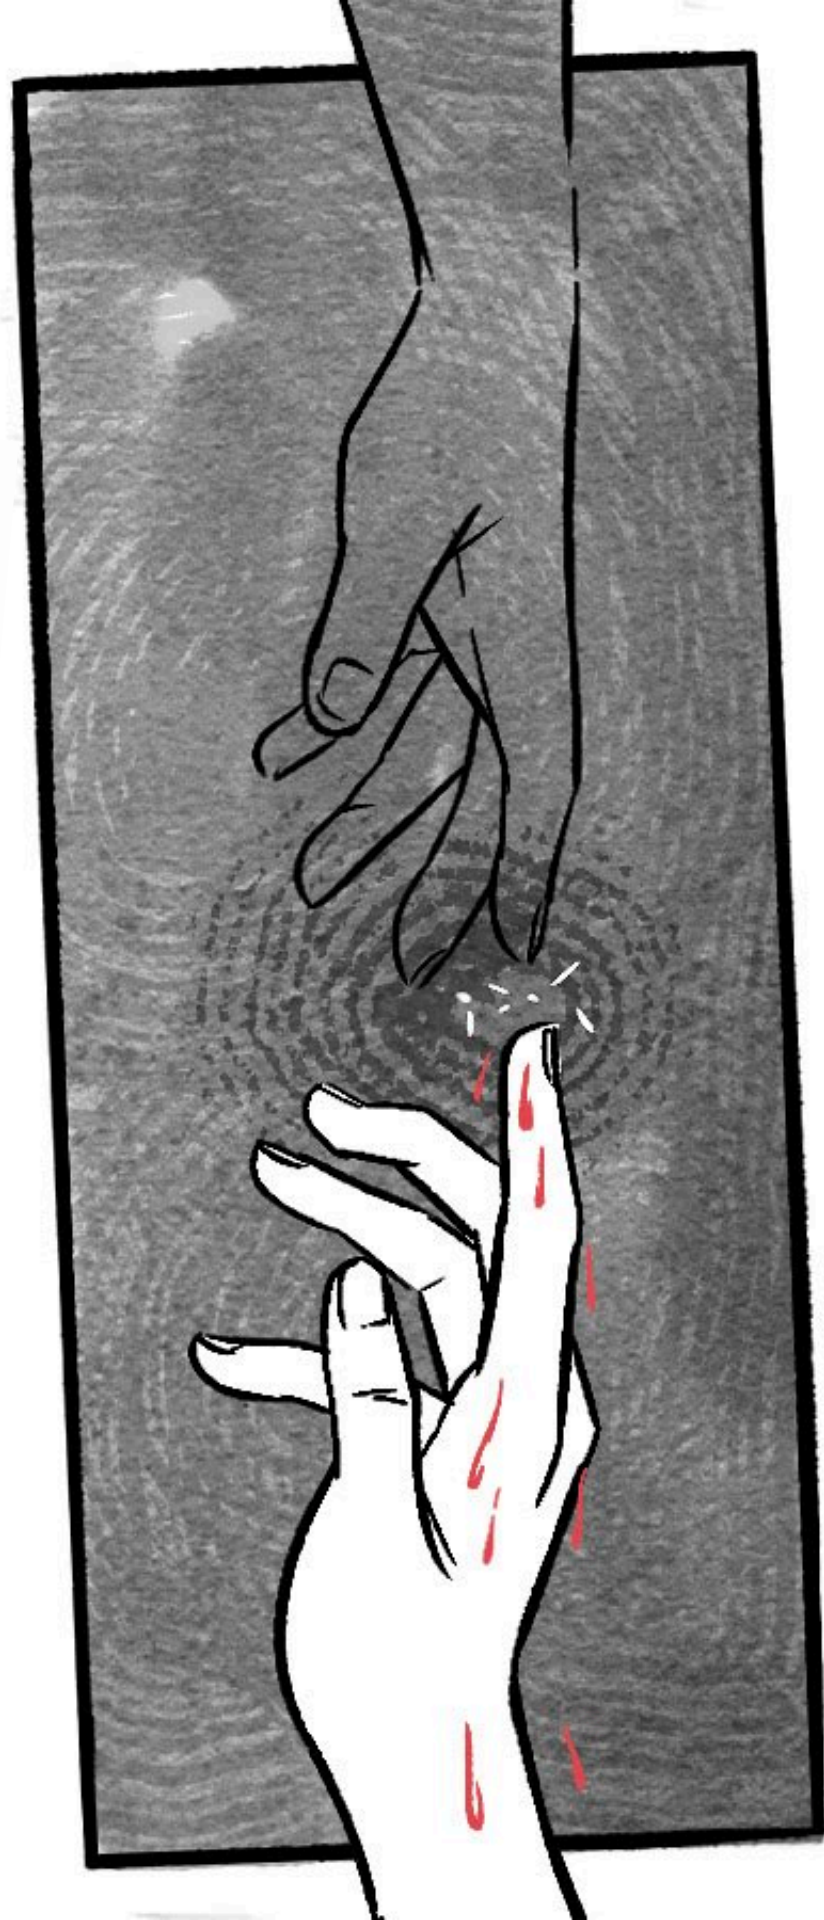

+ Personal Illustration

An art challenge where I draw every day for the whole month of October.

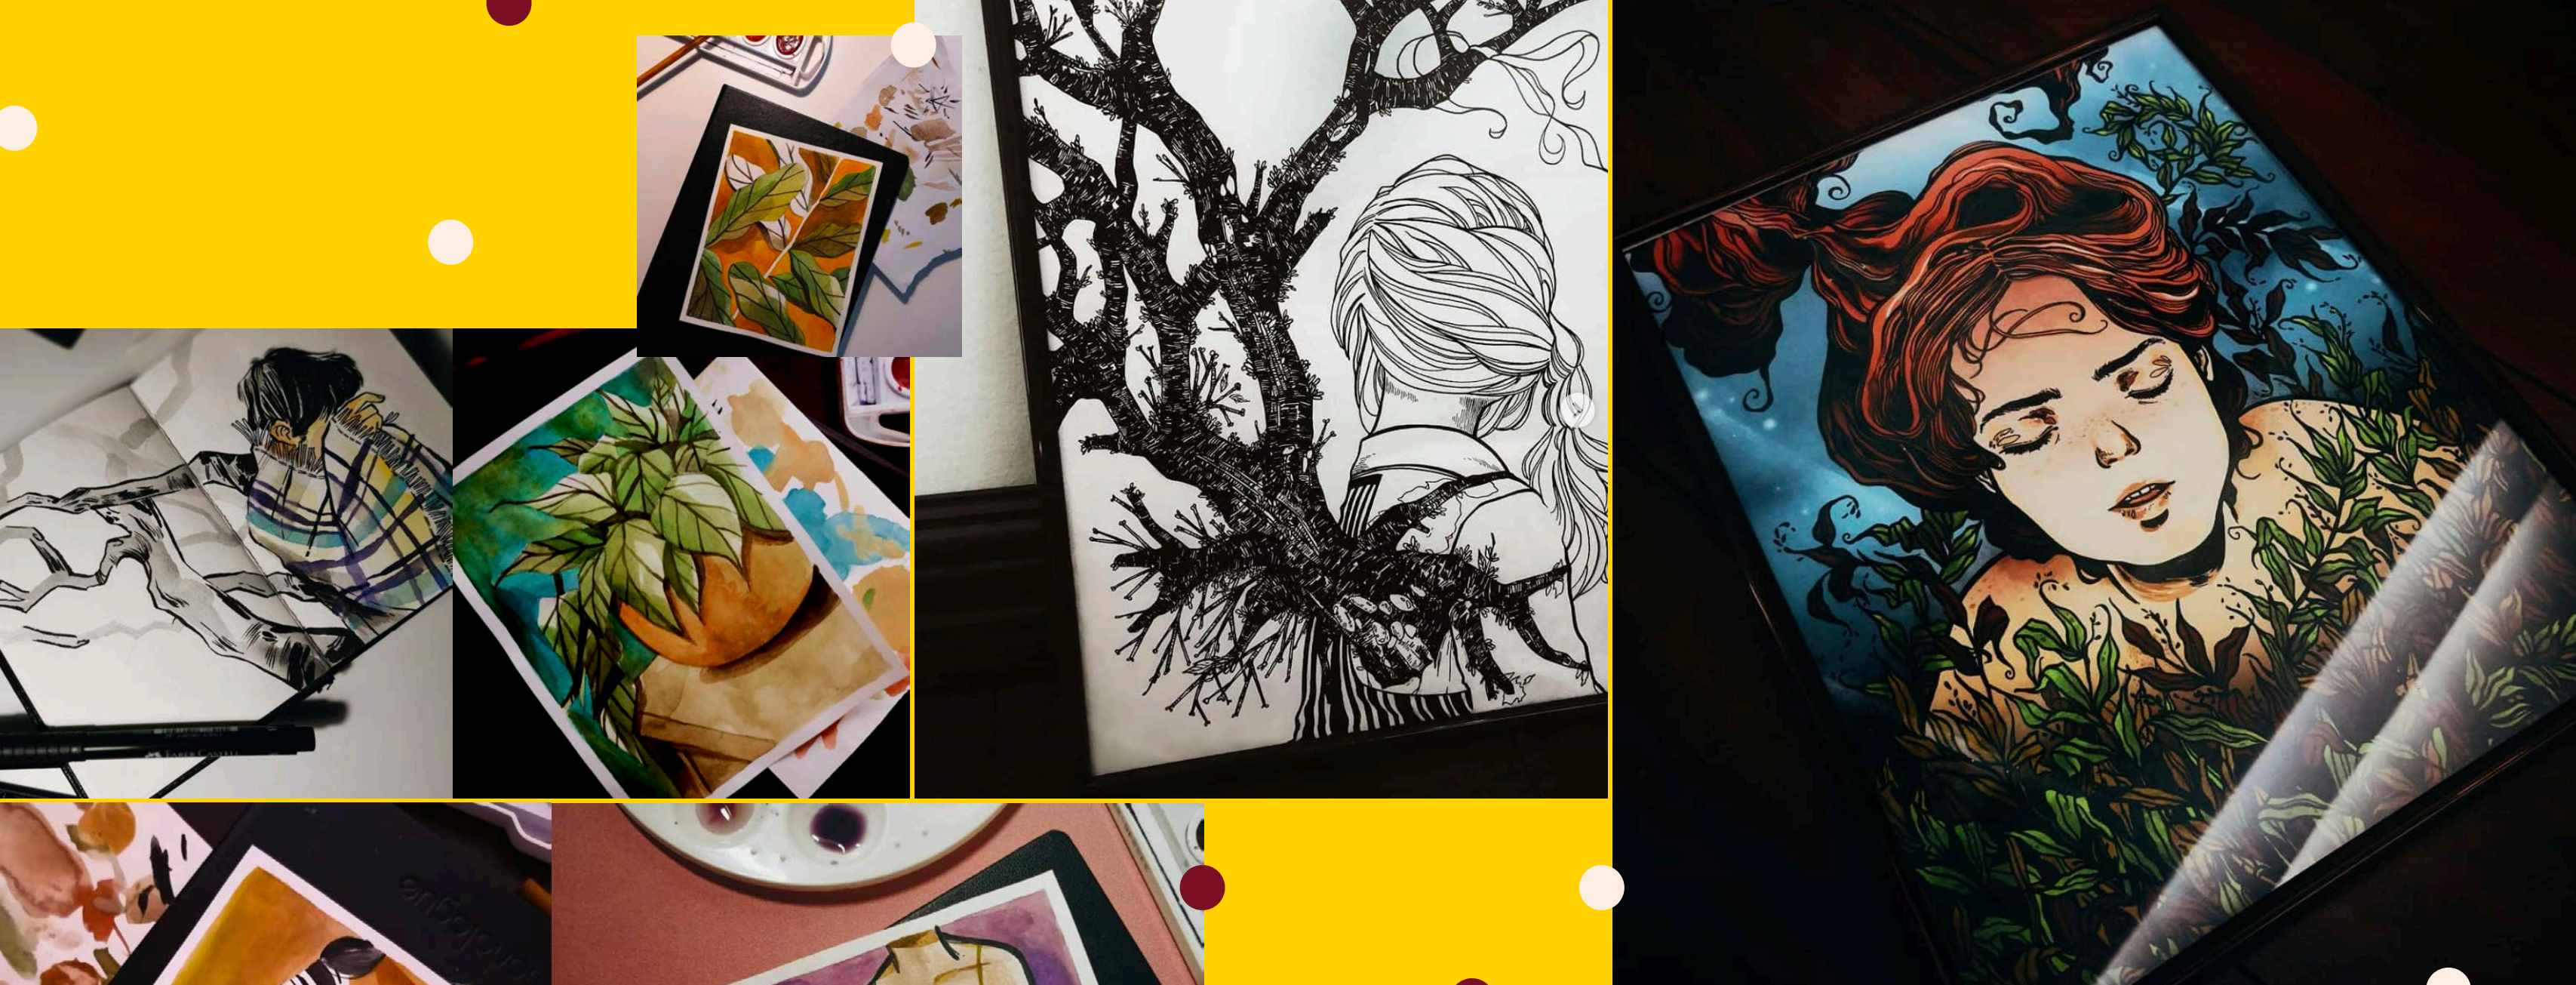

See more of my work and process on my website:

www.
mariel.rocks

*I promise I don't sound cocky irl, I just wanted a name that sticks.

I also post a random bunch of illustrations on my Instagram:

@comeonyell

Thank you for taking the time.

Let's Collaborate!

www.mariel.rocks

(+63) 9173035447

yhelempit@gmail.com